

WOMEN LEAD NC

NOVEMBER 8, 2023 | RALEIGH, NC

Lisa Hammond
Chief Human Resources Officer
Veradigm

Lisa Hammond has been with Veradigm (fka Allscripts) since March 2020. She is currently serving as Veradigm's Chief Human Resources Officer. Along with her team, she is accountable for setting the vision and strategy for supporting all Veradigm associates. Previously, Lisa held the roles of Senior Vice President, Global Human Resources, and Global Talent Acquisition, Development and HR Optimizations. Lisa and her team are committed to setting and executing strategies that support the attraction, retention and growth of all associates.

Prior to joining Veradigm in early 2020, Lisa held leadership roles with companies such as LM Restaurants, On the Border, ACG Texas LP, and Samsung Electronics America.

A graduate of Indiana University, Lisa earned her Business Coaching certification at NC State University. She is a Certified Executive Coach, with a robust internal client, a Six Sigma Black Belt, and is certified in a variety of developmental tools, including DISC, EQ, and Driving Forces.

Her experience in growing and emerging brands has afforded her the opportunity to lead functions outside of HR, including operations, sales, and marketing. Lisa brings more than twenty-five years' experience as an HR leader, coach, and partner to operations.

Lisa is active in her community, serving as Vice President of the Raleigh Racquet Club, President of her HOA, volunteer for Heroes Who Read @ Millbrook Elementary, and volunteer Therapy Dog team. She is also active with the American Heart Association, as the immediate past Chair of the AHA Go Red for Women Campaign 2022-2023, and current Executive Team Member. Additionally, she has spoken to many groups of women leaders, sharing her path, advise and humor helping empower others.
