SEC NOTES

SECOND TO NONE

In the past 25 years, the Southeastern Conference has been the top college baseball conference in the nation. Consider:

- Since 1990, 186 squads have received NCAA Tournament bids to lead the nation.
- A nation-leading 54 SEC teams have recorded College World Series berths since 1990, winning 10 of the last 25 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2014) and seven runner-ups (1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012 and 2013).

SEC IN THE COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Since 1990, the Southeastern Conference has been the most successful baseball conference in the country. The SEC has won 10 of the last 26 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2014), finished runner-up eight times and has put more teams in the College World Series than any conference in the country. The SEC has played in the CWS Championship Series eight consecutive years. Take a look at the SEC's success in the last 26 years:

SEC FIRST ROUND MAJOR LEAGUE PICKS

The SEC had seven players selected in the first round of the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft. Those seven picks represented five different schools. The SEC has now had a first-round MLB selection each year since 1991 and 105 total in the first round during that time. Vanderbilt's Dansby Swanson was selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks as the No. 1 pick in the 2015 MLB Draft, becoming the fourth SEC player to go No. 1 in the MLB Draft.

SEC ENDS 81ST SEASON OF CONFERENCE PLAY

This 2015 season marked the 81st season of conference play in the Southeastern Conference. In 1933, baseball became one of the first sports in which the SEC crowned a champion. The league did not sponsor teams in 1945 and 1946 due to World War II.

The SEC standings below include all regular-season games from 1933-2015, with SEC Tournament games counting in 1993 and 1994.
